YWCA Aurora's Clothing and Book Drive

The YWCA Aurora is hosting a Clothing and Book Drive during its Open House on Saturday, May 13 from 9am – 12pm at 347 S. Gladstone Avenue in Aurora. Community members can donate their gently-used clothing and books onsite. Proceeds from the clothing and book drive are used to support YWCA Aurora programs that help local children and families including the Bullying Prevention Peace Program, the STEM Initiative and the After School Program.

Please consider donating your gently used clothing and books! Clothing should be in 13-gallon kitchen bags and books should be in boxes.

Perfect for your spring cleaning!

The YWCA Aurora Open House is proudly sponsored by the following companies:

YWCA Aurora provides women and girls with the leadership skills necessary to achieve greater personal power and economic success; and, provides a safe forum for discussing race relations. Our mission is to eliminate racism, empower women and promote peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. ##
