YWCA Aurora Hosts the annual Peace Program Celebration

The YWCA Aurora will provide its annual Peace Program Celebration event on Friday, April 21 from 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm at the Prisco Community Center located at 150 W. Illinois Avenue.

This public event is designed to educate parents and families and raise community awareness about bullying prevention. We provide a guest speaker, activities and a meal for participants.

This year's keynote speaker, Cynthia Gamboa, will provide a parent bullying prevention workshop to help parents identify and respond to bullying, and provide families with helpful resources. Comedy magician Jim Austin will provide entertainment for the children.

This event is free and open to the public - we welcome all families! Please RSVP to Helane' at haghagyere@ywcaaurora.org or 630-299-2281 to ensure we have enough food.

YWCA Aurora provides women and girls with the leadership skills necessary to achieve greater personal power and economic success; and, provides a safe forum for discussing race relations. Our mission is to eliminate racism, empower women and promote peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all.
